

JOB INTERVIEW – Erika Mayerli Diaz Rosas- 2501619

- How did you hear about this job?

I looked in Computrabajo.

- What do you know about our company so far?

I investigate online that the company is too important a level national in the development website.

- Tell me about yourself

My name is Erika Diaz, I'm twenty-three years old, currently I'm web developer, also I have a certification in technology in analyst and development of software, I live in Bogotá with my parents and my dog, I considered as a comprehensive, pro-active and focus person.

- Why did you decide to study it?

Because I'm too creative and I'm interested in the technology, create solutions to the Company's is fantastic.

- What exactly made you apply for this job at our company?

This company is too interesting to me, so I want to grow in a professional level and acquire new skills (I whole love- me encantaria)

- What are your strengths?

I'm a person with too skills, I can teamworking, I'm creative, the development front-end is a strengths and I'm Good at solving the problems of clients.

- Can you provide an example of how you acted as a team player?

When there was a problem with the training project I was developing and I had to manage the documents to be delivered, support a colleague